2. Koinly

Koinly is a crypto portfolio manager for beginners and advanced users alike.

We have been using this manager for quite some time now and are really impressed with its features. With Koinly you can track your cryptocurrencies on various exchanges and be perpetually aware of what coins you have in your portfolio.

It also provides intuitive graphs and charts based on your portfolio holdings and market movements so that you can make educated decisions.

It is a paid tool that is available on the web.

3. Binance

Now that you have seen portfolio balancers, portfolio managers, crypto wallets, it makes sense in looking at one of the most prominent crypto exchanges that have set a new benchmark for the whole trading exchange industry.

Binance is one of the world's top three exchanges. And to your surprise and mine, it is not even two years old in the business.

The team behind Binance is amazing and heavily focused on serving its trading customers. That's why they launch innovative airdrops, competitions, and prizes regularly for their traders.

Plus, their trading fee is the lowest in the industry at 0.1%, on which also you can get a 50% discount if you use their native BNB tokens to pay the trading fees.

4. Bybit

Bybit hasn't been in the crypto market for long. What makes it a good platform is that its main purpose is to cater for crypto derivatives trading. It supports four derivative pairs, including BTC, ETH, XRP, and EOS. These crypto-assets are all paired against the USDT.

You can only fund your account through crypto. There's no support for a credit card or wire transfers.

Bybit's team claims the platform can process up to 100,000 transactions per second. This makes it powerful for both individual and institutional traders.

For user experience, Bybit is clean. It's built to appeal to newcomers and veteran traders alike. There are a lot of basic educational resources for newbies to learn trading on the platform. Traders can easily access Bybit on any browser or download its mobile app.

- Read: Bybit review

You can deposit any amount of your choice. But there's a minimum withdrawal amount depending on the crypto asset. We outline this below:

- Bitcoin: 0.0005BTC
- Ethereum: 0.01ETH
- Ripple: 0.25XRP
- EOS: 0.1EOS

Newcomers on Bybit get a bonus of $90.

5. Shrimpy

The screenshot displays the Shrimpy trading platform interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with a search icon, a user profile icon labeled 'GUEST', and a balance of '$1,915.52'. Below this is a 'Manage Portfolio' section with a 'Rebalance Now' button. A line chart shows the portfolio's performance over time, with a 'Parity' label. To the right of the chart, three key metrics are displayed: '$1,915.52 Portfolio Total', '$734.21 Since Feb 9, 2020', and '-38.33% Since Feb 9, 2020'. Below these is a table listing the portfolio's assets:

	Value	Percent	Amount	Difference	Online	Offline
Bitcoin	$1,202.21	62.8%	0.04835983 BTC	$1.43	Online	Offline
Ethereum	$202.04	10.6%	1.51812990 ETH	$2.06	Online	Offline
XRP	$52.10	2.7%	955.79953500 XRP	-$3.01	Online	Offline
Bitcoin Cash	$274.06	14.3%	0.45306043 BCH	-$22.41	Online	Offline
Litecoin	$114.98	6.0%	2.2727687 LTC	-$3.04	Online	Offline

Shrimpy is another crypto software that enables you to diversify, automate, and earn from cryptocurrency investments.

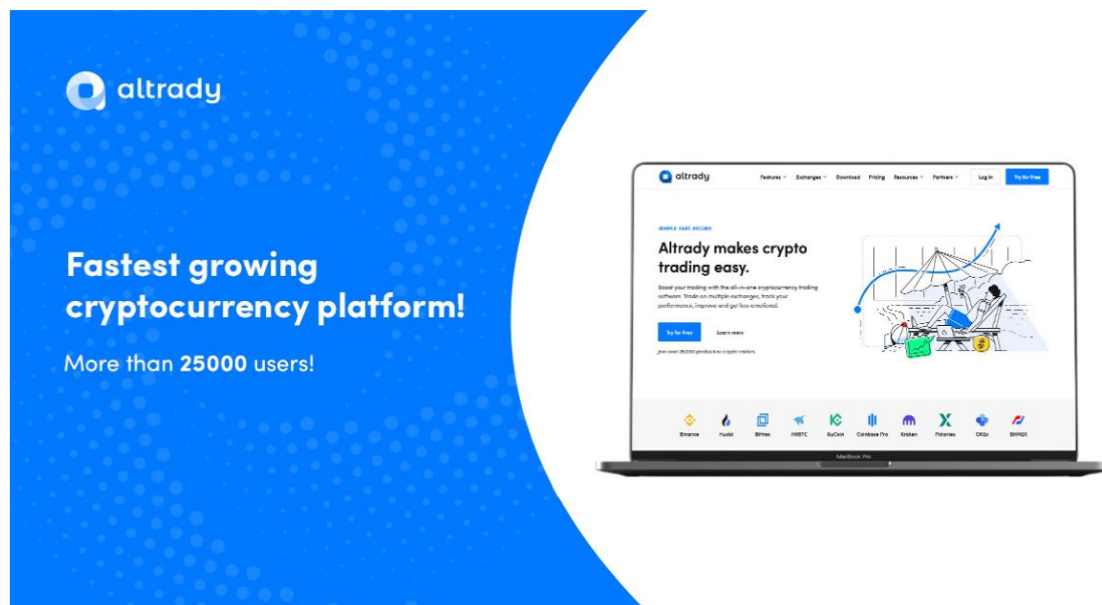

We all know about HODLing but a new concept of rebalancing introduced by Shrimpy even works better as it automatically helps to buy low and sell high. The rebalancing technique is used by the crypto whales to minimize risk and maximize their profits irrespective of market conditions.

Once you schedule your rebalancing cycle in hours, days, or weeks, Shrimpy will automatically buy/sell cryptocurrencies in each cycle that are performing as per your goal/classification.

Of course, for this, you need to integrate your exchanges with Shrimpy and it is quite easy to do so. Check out our guide on how to use Shrimpy to automatically balance your cryptocurrency portfolio.

6. Altrady

The advertisement features a blue background with a white Altrady logo in the top left. The main text reads "Fastest growing cryptocurrency platform!" followed by "More than 25000 users!". On the right, a laptop displays the Altrady website interface, which includes a navigation menu, a "Sign Up Free" button, and a "Sign In" button. The website content highlights "Altrady makes crypto trading easy" and features a line graph with a blue arrow pointing upwards. At the bottom of the laptop screen, there is a row of icons for various cryptocurrency exchanges: Binance, Huobi, Bitfinex, HETC, KuCoin, Coinbase Pro, FTX, Kraken, OKX, and Bitfex.

I guess if you are using Binance and Bitfinex then you have almost covered more than 50% of the crypto market.

But if you are someone who wants to dig deeper and increase their reach as well as reduce their risk by using several exchanges then Altrady is for you.

Using Altrady, one can trade on multiple exchanges from a single account and trade hundreds of currencies from their palm with Altrady's mobile app.

You can access real-time updates, alerts, and charts from various exchanges from where you can buy different cryptocurrencies.

In this way, you will diversify your exchanges by buying/selling different cryptocurrencies at different exchanges, therefore reducing your risk of being exposed to one or two exchanges.

Features of Altrady:

1. Smart Trading
2. Real-Time Market Data and Alerts
3. Multiple Exchanges
4. Scaled Ladders
5. Market Scanners
6. Desktop app (Also available on the cloud)
7. Trading Analytics
8. Positions with P&L
9. Crypto Journaling
10. Portfolio Manager
11. Mobile apps
12. Coinigy import

These features don't come for free as there is a standard fee for monthly and annual subscriptions but the trial version is available for a month free of cost.

7. TradeSanta

TradeSanta is a free Crypto trading bot that automates crypto trading and helps you make a profit even when you sleep. Another interesting thing behind TradeSanta is it is suitable for newbies as all you are doing is creating a long and short position.

Getting started is easy, and all you need to do is connect TradeSanta with a supported exchange using API and then you can start with minimum investment. Even $50 is a good start to test out this free Bot.

At the time of writing, the following exchanges are supported:

- Binance
- Bittrex
- Bitfinex
- HitBTC

Following exchanges will be supported soon:

- BitMex
- Huobi

The help guides and videos will help you understand how to use TradeSanta and you can get started with automated crypto trading within less than 30 minutes.

8. Ledger Nano X

Not talking about Ledger Nano X in the crypto space is criminal. Ledger Nano X is one of the most popular cryptocurrency hardware wallets in the market.

If you are someone who is serious about cryptocurrencies and their long-term value, you MUST have Ledger Nano X at your disposal.

Ledger Nano X currently supports more than 25 cryptocurrencies and 1000s of ERC20 tokens. Plus, it is an HD wallet which is quite popular in the cryptosphere.

9. Bitfinex

Bitfinex is another popular cryptocurrency exchange that has made a mark in very little time.

It is run by an experienced team of traders and developers who have previous experience in running crypto exchanges.

Here you can find some of the rare cryptocurrency gems that you would otherwise not find anywhere else.

Just like Binance, they offer a fully functional mobile app for Android and iOS. And also have their own native token called LEO, holders of this token get a discount on trading fees.

Apart from this benefit, their fee structure of trading is rather cheap with only 0.1% as the trading fees.

10. CoinMarketCap

CoinMarketCap needs no introduction unless it is your first day in the world of crypto.

This is one of the most visited websites in the cryptosphere and that's because it tracks prices, market cap, volume, listings of coins, and tokens in this space.

Furthermore, it shows prices, volume, and other data in 13 languages and 28 national currencies. It also saves historical price charts of crypto markets and provides you with real-time charts for BTC and the whole crypto market.

It has APIs and widgets, social, markets section for each coin/token which makes things easier for traders to make decisions quickly

11. CoinGecko

CoinGecko is another price and volume tracker website that does the same job as CoinMarketCap.

Well, why to use it when it is the same as CoinMarkeCap, you may ask.

That is because it is to be used as a second opinion as it is not a good practice to rely on centralized systems like this for decentralized markets.

With CoinGecko you can see and track prices of 100s and 1000s of cryptocurrencies in fiat and BTC with appealing charts of different intervals.

One can also see CoinGecko UI in 15 different languages apart from English which is a huge plus point for any website in this niche.

Check out CoinGecko

12. CoinMarketCal

CoinMarketCal is a must-have tool in your armor if you are trading crypto.

Evidence-based and community-driven, CoinMarketCal is an economic calendar for the cryptocurrency market.

With CoinMarketCal, you will get to know about different coin's beta, alpha release, or mainnet or testnet launches. You will also get to know about airdrops or the launch of a new feature in that particular project.

Plus, all this information is available on CoinMarketCap with their source of information where users can verify the information and then upvote or downvote it.

It is a must-have tool to be used while making your crypto strategy and the good thing is that it is totally free to use.

13. CryptoPanic

CryptoPanic is another favorite tool of mine that helps me stay on top of the news from the cryptosphere.

Crypto is a relatively small market that is highly influenced by news. That's why it becomes important to know the news and then gauge the sentiments of the market.

This helps in solidifying your crypto strategy.

With CryptoPanic's free version, you can follow highly customized news according to the coins you are interested in.

Plus, you can get the feature to follow your chosen YouTube channels, Reddit thread and Twitter accounts to accurately gauge the sentiments of the market.

You have the option to do these things on your mobile also as CryptoPanic provides apps for both iOS and Android. (Download CryptoPanic Android App, Download CryptoPanic iOS App).

Check out CryptoPanic

Bonus: TradingView

TradingView is a highly rated charting software that is quite popular in the world for showing accurate market charts for commodities, stocks, derivatives, and now crypto also.

So if you are someone who likes technical analysis of coins by looking at charts of different intervals, this tool is for you.

Moreover, to aid you will find all the latest and traditional patterns analysis tools inbuilt in trading view software.

Conclusion

These are the most popular crypto tools and they are worth watching. Some of them may develop into a mainstream tool in the days to come.

Either way, these projects are doing something significant and would help you in picking better trade.

Well, I am sure no one would have access to all the tools. Don't worry. When I started off, I didn't have all this either, but with the time you can start adopting one thing at a time to take your crypto trading skills to the next level.

Now, it's your turn to try out these tools and share your experience in the comments section below 😊
